

As an intrastate truck driver and owner of an XM unit I wish to comment on the use of such services. These are invaluable since FM radio is usually behind and is not dedicated to either subject. This service is reachable no matter where I go in the lower forty eight. Please keep this service with XM.